

Date: Tuesday 6 April 2004

Place: Ihresalen, SVC, Uppsala University

Programme

9.00 – 9.15 Opening

9.15 – 10.30 Janet Holmes, Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand:
"Relational and transactional functions of workplace discourse: a socio-pragmatic perspective"

10.30 – 11.00 Coffee

11.00 – 11.30 Anna Lindström, Uppsala University: The organization of troubles-tellings in the Swedish home help service.

11.30 – 12.00 Karin Milles, Stockholm University: "The invisible order of the workplace meeting"

12.00 – 12.30 Harriet Sharp, Stockholm University: "The Anglo-hybridization of Swedish Business Discourse"

12.30 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 14.30 Britt-Louise Gunnarsson, Uppsala University: The verbal construction of organizations.

14.30 – 15.00 Kristina Jämtelid, Stockholm University: "One company, many languages - how are texts produced in an international company?"

15.00 – 15.30 Anna-Malin Karlsson, Stockholm University: "Goods, services and the role of written discourse - some results from the project Literacy Practices in Working Life"

15.30 – 16.00 Coffee

16.00 – 16.30 Anne Kankaanranta, Helsinki School of Economics, Finland:
"English as a corporate language: Company-internal e-mail messages written by Finns and Swedes"

16.30 – 17.00 Ulla Börestam, Uppsala University: "Culture and culture again: An Inter-Nordic merger in the banking sector"

17.00 – 17.15 Closing

Organizer: Britt-Louise Gunnarsson, FUMS, Department of Scandinavian Languages, Uppsala University, Box 527, SE-75120 Uppsala.
