

Date: 18-19 June 2004

Place: Room 16-0042, Språkvetenskapligt centrum, Uppsala University

Address: Villavägen 4, Uppsala

Organizers: Professor Britt-Louise Gunnarsson, FUMS, Dept. of Scandinavian Languages, Uppsala University & Professor Kerstin Severinson Eklundh, NADA, Royal Institute of Technology (KTH)

Programme

Friday 18 June

9.30 - 10.30 Opening and Introduction

10.30-11.00 Coffee

11.00-12.30 Discussion of position papers

Brenda Danet:

Tuija Virtanen: Internet as a Kashab of Communication

12.30-13.30 Lunch

13.30-15.00 Discussion of position papers

Anders Björkvall & Anna-Malin Karlsson: Discourse and the World Wide Web: In Search of the Unprivileged User

Olle Findahl: Internet and the Promised Land

15.00-15.30 Coffee

15.30- 17.00 Discussion of position papers

Jana Holsanova: Tracking multimodal interaction with new media

Amelie Hössjer: Variation and complexity in e-mail communication – reserch perspectives för the future?

17.00-17.30 General discussion

19.00 Dinner at Restaurant Guldkanten

Saturday 19 June

9.00-10.30 Discussion of position papers

Lars Ilshammar: Infrastructures of Democracy and the Transformation of the Public Sphere

Tobias Ohlsson: Is there an Ordinary Citizen? Contextualizing the Internet Users

10.30-11.00 Coffee

11.00-12.30 Discussion of position papers

Anna Nöteberg: Effects of privacy concerns and policies on willingness to use Internet-based services

Sara Eriksén:

12.30-13.30 Lunch

13.30-15.00 Discussion of position papers

Thea van der Geest: Tax to the max: Internet for ordinary people

Patrik Hernwall: Are we all cyborgs? – a presentation of the research project
Virtual Society

15.00-15.30 Coffee

15.30-17.00 General discussion and Closing